HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure Juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.
DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Excesses, etc.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, becomes plentiful, becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their sinken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, complain of a variety of ailments, and never feel well. They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.
WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1757.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."
HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1860.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."
FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear conscience and proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.
FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

SHALL WE.

When the heart has ceased its beating,
And the hands clasped o'er the breast,
Shall we know no more of weeping?
Shall we have eternal rest?
When our friends are for us praying,
And are shedding each a tear,
Shall we hear what they are saying?
Shall we know that they are near?

When our souls to Heaven ascending,
All the loved ones we shall greet,
Shall we see the mourners bending?
Shall we wonder why they weep?
When the vesper bell is ringing,
And the organ loud doth swell,
Shall we join the voices singing?
Shall we? Shall we? Who can tell?

The Various Implements of Masonry.

As emblematical of our conduct in life, they afford us very many useful lessons which we will do well to heed. The Holy Bible is one of the great lights of the craft, one that we cannot fail to follow if we would be true to our principles, and measure up to the standard required of us. It will guide us in the way of truth that adorns and strengthens the character of man. It will lead us into the temple of true and abiding happiness, and secure for us an entrance into the Grand Lodge Room on high. "It enriches the memory, it elevates the reason, it enlivens the imagination, it directs the judgment; it controls the passions, it quickens the conscience, it strengthens the will, it kindles the sacred flame of faith, hope and charity; it purifies, ennobles, sanctifies the whole man, and brings him into living union with God. It has light for the blind, strength for the weak, food for the hungry, drink for the thirsty; it has a counsel in precept for every sorrow, a balm for every wound. Of all the books in the world the Bible is the only one of which we never tire, but which we admire and love more and more in proportion as we use it. Like the diamond, it casts its lustre in every direction; like a torch, the more it is shaken the more it shines; like a healing herb, the harder it is pressed the sweeter is its fragrance." The Holy Bible lies open before every member of the Order, and points out the whole duty of man. Walk in the great light that you may reflect honor upon that Order, whose foundation principles are the truths therein revealed.

Then by other emblems we are taught to regulate our actions, our every movement by the principles of morality and virtue; and in our different stations among men and before God, to walk uprightly, circumscribing our desires within proper limits. We are also directed to move right onward in the way of truth, turning neither to the right nor the left, and to avoid in our conversation and actions dissimulation. The earnest student as he advances in Masonry, may also learn lessons appropriate to the three principal stages in human life, viz, youth, manhood and age; and if true to these lessons, he may as a Master Mason "enjoy the happy reflection consequent on a well spent life, and die in the hope of a glorious immortality." Let all the instruments and emblems of Masonry be carefully used and closely studied, and we shall ever and always deserve the title of "good men and true." We will come more fully to understand our duty to God, and to each other; there will indeed be enkindled in our hearts a flame of devotion to God, of brotherly love to each other, and charity to all mankind.

THE WRONG WORD.—An Englishman, some years ago, was studying the German language in Leipsic. Being invited out one evening, he could not go on account of his wife's illness. He chanced to meet the lady from whom the invitation came at another evening party. He went to her at once and apologized for his absence: "My wife was sick," said he, "and I had to stay at home and be the 'Ammo,'" meaning to say nurse. To his surprise the whole company broke out in peals of laughter. His surprise kindled to indignation. "What are you all laughing at?" cried he, "it is all right, I tell you, I know it is, I looked in the dictionary on purpose before I came; I was the 'Ammo, Ammo, Ammo—Ammo;'" he repeated it carefully as he began to think he must have pronounced it incorrectly, "I was the 'Ammo,' I tell you." The merriment on the German side and the anger on the English grew apace; nor was it for some time longer possible to explain to him that "Ammo" indeed means nurse, but a particular kind of nurse—wet nurse.

☞The Galena Gazette says that during the storm Sunday night, when the air was thoroughly charged with electricity, the lightning passed along the wires into the telegraph office in that city, setting fire to the window curtain, a bunch of envelopes on the table, and other papers. The curtain was completely burned up. The window casing was charred by the burning of the telegraphic files, which hung against it. Nothing was known of it till morning, when the operator went to the office and found the room filled with smoke.

THE new five cent coins from the Mint in Philadelphia are the size of the present piece; the three cent and one cent pieces are somewhat smaller. The devices on all of them are alike—on one side the head of the Goddess of Liberty, surrounded by the words "United States of America," on the other side are the Roman numerals I, III, and V.

☞Some one, looking at a rich man, said: "Poor man, he toiled day and night until he was forty, to gain his wealth, and he has been watching it day and night, ever since, for his victuals and clothes."

Will Locusts Sting?

Benjamin D. Wutsh, M. A., Acting State Entomologist of Illinois, contends that locusts do not sting. He writes from Egypt, [Illinois,] and says he has often handled locusts, provoked their envy to sting him, and always with impunity. He explains the current stories about the sting of locusts as follows:

There is a very large diggor wasp, almost two inches long—the Stitzus grandis, of Say, if I recollect right—whose peculiar habit it is to provision its nests with the body of one of these seventeen year locusts.

It first, like most diggor wasps, digs a hole in the ground, by way of nest, then catches a locust, stings it just enough to stupefy it, but not enough to kill it, and drags it into the hole which has already been prepared to receive it. Having thus furnished a sufficiency of food for its future offspring, prepared in such an ingenious manner that it will keep fresh for a long time without a particle of salt or saltpetre, it deposits a single egg in the nest, closes up its mouth with earth, and then flies off to repeat the above laborious process over and over again, till its stock of eggs is exhausted. Before many days the egg hatches out into a little soft, white, legless larva, which gradually devours the body of the living locust. At length, having become full-fed, it spins a membranous cocoon, inside which it passes the winter, and in the following spring develops into a perfect digger wasp, to repeat the same wonderful cycle of operations year after year, and century after century.

To some, perhaps, all this may sound like a traveler's tale. But let any incredulous person examine at this time of the year the common mud dabs that may be found in any outbuilding, and he will find but another edition of the process recapitulated above; the only difference being that the mother wasp that constructs these mud dabs makes its nest above ground instead of underground; and provisions it with some ten or a dozen spiders in place of a single locust.

The species of sizus referred to above is rather an uncommon insect, but as I happen to know, it occurs from Pennsylvania to the region west of the Mississippi. What is more likely, then, than that one of these wasps, with a squalling locust in his grasp, should two or three times every year light upon a human being—and, that, upon being brushed off, or otherwise harshly treated, it should retaliate after the fashion of all female wasps, by stinging the offender? Of course the effects of the sting of so gigantic a species of wasp would in all probability be very severe; for instance, a lump on the neck as big as a man's fist produced in two minutes. And of course if the locust happened to be squalling loudly at the time of the sting, the wound inflicted would be pretty sure to be laid at its door.

If, on the other hand, we persist in believing that it is the female locust herself that stings in such cases as these, why do we not hear of thousands of persons being stung by locusts every year? There are millions upon millions of locusts in the woods this summer, butting madly up against men, women and children every hour of the day. Surely, if the females were physically capable of stinging, instead of half a dozen such cases, we should hear of thousands upon them, throughout the interior districts. Locusts must be to the full as numerous as bees. If one insect can sting as well as the other, why are not locust stings as common as bee stings?

Off Hannibal, Mo., June 17, 1868.

THE MYSTERIES OF "PLANCHETTE."—"Planchette," which is performing its gyrations in half the parlors of Eastern cities, has the fortunate advantages of being portable, neat, low priced, and easily worked. The elements unite to make it amenable to all interested in its operations; these are, curiosity, which universally abounds, and patience, which is far less common.—"Planchette" consists of a heartshaped bit of wood, a quarter of an inch thick, smooth, polished, supported on a couple of delicate wheels, made of ivory, and requiring a recorder near the point to ensure that the instrument will not only stand upon a sheet of paper placed upon a table, with a smooth marble or wooden surface.—The recorder is a black lead pencil brought to a fine point, which writes upon the paper—writes actual answers to various question. The game [but that is scarcely the proper name for it], is played by several persons placing their fingers lightly upon the table land, so to call it, of the heartshaped little machine as it stands upon the table. After a pause of more or less delay, "Planchette" begins to move under the united touch of the fingers lightly resting upon it. Then the motion increases—the pencil making each track upon the paper. No muscular motion of any person assisting is permitted. It would seem as if Planchette were operating independently. A whispers a name or a word to B and forthwith Planchette writes it down. Some people cannot work it—supposed to indicate a limited quantity of animal magnetism.

COST OF RAISING CORN.—Several neighboring farmers lately met in Champaign county, Illinois, to compare results of their farming operations. In respect to corn raising they made an estimate based upon the daily wages of men and teams, which seemed to show that at the present time it cannot be raised at less than 50 cents per bushel, unless over 40 bushels to the acre can be obtained, which am't. was considered a full average for the western part of that county.

Veto of the Arkansas Bill.

The following is the text of President Johnson's message, vetoing the Arkansas bill:

To the House of Representatives I return, without my signature, a bill entitled an act to admit the State of Arkansas to representation in Congress. The approval of this bill would be an admission on the part of the Executive that the "Act for the more efficient government of the Rebel States," passed March 2, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, were proper and constitutional. My opinion, however, in reference to these measures has undergone no change, but, on the contrary, has been strengthened by the results which have attended their execution.

Even were this not the case, I could not consent to a bill which is based upon the assumption either that by an act of rebellion of a portion of its people the State of Arkansas seceded from the Union, or that Congress may, at its pleasure, expel or exclude a State from the Union, or interrupt the Government by arbitrarily deprive it of representation in the Senate and House of representatives.

If Arkansas is a State not in the Union, this bill does not admit her as a State into the Union. If, on the other hand, Arkansas is a State in the Union, no legislation is necessary to declare her entitled to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union. The Constitution already declares that "each State shall have at least one representative;" that the Senate "shall be composed of two Senators from each State," and "that no State without its consent shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate." That enactment also makes each House the judge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of its own members; and, therefore, all that is now necessary to restore Arkansas in all its constitutional relations to the Government is a decision by each House upon the eligibility of those who, presenting their credentials, claim seats in the respective Houses of Congress. This is the plain and simple plan of the Constitution; and believing that had it been pursued when Congress re-assembled in the month of December 1865, the restoration of the States would long since have been completed of once again earnestly recommended that it be adopted by each House in preference to legislation which I respectfully submit, is not only of at least doubtful constitutionality, and therefore unwise and dangerous as a precedent, but is unnecessary, not so effective in its operations as the mode prescribed by the Constitution, involves additional delay, and from its terms may be taken rather as applicable to a territory about to be admitted as one of the United States, than to a State which has occupied a place in the Union for upwards of a quarter of a century. The bill declares the State of Arkansas entitled, and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental conditions:—That the Constitution of Arkansas shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof he shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State, provided that any alteration of said Constitution, prospective in its effect, may be made in regard to the time and place of residence of voters.

I have been unable to find in the Constitution of the United States any warrant for the exercise of the authority thus claimed by Congress, for assuming the power to impose a fundamental condition upon a State which has been duly admitted into the Union on equal footing with the original States in all respects whatever. Congress asserts a right to enter a State as it may a territory, and to regulate the highest prerogative of a free people, the elective franchise. This question is reserved by the Constitution to the States themselves, and to concede to Congress the power to regulate this subject would be to reverse the fundamental principles of the republic, and to place in the hands of the Federal Government, which is the creature of the States, the sovereignty which justly belongs to the State, or the people, its true source of all political power, by whom the federal system was created, and to whose will it is subordinate. The bill fails to provide in what manner the State of Arkansas is to signify its acceptance of the fundamental condition which Congress endeavored to make unalterable and irrevocable, nor does it prescribe the penalty to be imposed should the people of the State amend or change the particular portions of the Constitution which it is one of the purposes of this bill to perpetrate; but as the consequences of its action, leaves them in uncertainty and doubt. When the circumstances under which the Constitution has been brought to the attention of Congress, it is not unreasonable to suppose that efforts will be made to modify its provisions, and especially those in respect to which this measure prohibits any alteration. It is seriously questioned whether the Constitution has been ratified by a majority of the persons who, under the act of March 2, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, are entitled to registration, and to vote upon that issue. Section 10 of the schedule provides that no person disqualified from voting or registering under the Constitution shall vote for candidates for any office, nor shall be permitted to vote for the ratification or rejection of the Constitution at the polls herein authorized, assumed to be in force before its adoption, his disregard of the law of Congress, the Constitution undertakes to impose upon the electors other and further conditions. The fifth section of the Eighth Article provides that all persons before registering or voting must take and subscribe an oath which, among others, contains the following clause:—"That I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons on account of race, color, or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege, or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men."

It is well known that a very large portion of the electors in all the States, if not a large majority of all of them do not believe in or accept the political equality of Indians, Mongolians or negroes, with the race to which they belong. If the voters in many of the States of the North and West were required to take such an oath as a test of their qualification, there is reason to believe that a majority of them would remain from the polls rather than comply with its degrading conditions. How far and to what extent this test oath prevented the registration of those who were qualified under the laws of Congress, it is not impossible to know. But that such was its effect, at least sufficient to overcome the small and doubtful majority in favor of the Constitution, there can be no reasonable doubt. Should the people of Arkansas, therefore, desiring to regulate the elective franchise so as to make it conform to the Constitution of a large proportion of the States of the North and West, modify her provisions referred to in the "fundamental condition," what is to be the consequence?

Is it intended that a denial of representation shall follow, and, if so, may we not dread, at some future day, a recurrence of the troubles which have so long agitated the country? Would it not be the part of wisdom to take for our guide the Federal Constitution, rather than resort to measures which, looking only to the present, may, in a few years, renew in an aggravating form, distress and bitterness, caused by legislation which has proved to be so ill-timed and unfortunate?

ANDREW JOHNSON.

Washington, June 20, 1868.

After the reading of the message, the bill was passed over the veto, yeas, 109; nays, 31.

Give Your Child a Newspaper.

A child beginning to read, becomes delighted with a newspaper, because he reads the names of things which are very familiar and will make progress accordingly. A newspaper in one year is worth a quarter's schooling to a child, and every father must consider that substantial information in connection with advancement. The mother of a family being one of its heads, and having a more immediate charge of children should herself be instructed. A mind occupied becomes fortified against the ills of life, and is braced for an emergency. Children amused by reading or studying, are of course more considerate and more easily governed. How many thoughtless young men have spent their evenings in a tavern or grog shop who ought to have been reading? How many parents who have not spent twenty dollars for books for their families, would have given thousands to reclaim a son or daughter who had ignorantly or thoughtlessly fallen into temptation?

Why not give your child a newspaper, if the results here stated are to be obtained? And who can for a moment doubt that they may?

In a well conducted newspaper, the family will not only have an opportunity of improvement in different branches of literature, such as spelling and reading correctly, but will also be possessed of universal knowledge. The children will find the principles of morality, honesty, truthfulness, obedience to parents, &c., inculcated in the newspaper—they will meet with incidents in the lives of historic characters, who, from poverty and ignorance by industry, have attained the first rank in society, in wealth, influence and intelligence; and by thus learning what others have been able to do, will themselves be led to follow their example, and like them secure to themselves success, respectability and renown in the earth.

The advantages accruing from the weekly visits of a good newspaper are invaluable. It is a running Cyclopedia of the events and discoveries occurring in every department of life, and with the knowledge it imparts, both parents and children will be enabled to keep up with the various improvements of this progressive age, and better prepared to avoid coming dangers, and avail themselves of proffered benefits. Let no family be without a good newspaper.

TO PROMOTE HEALTH.—Do not expect, sir, some wonderful announcement, some fascinating mystery. No. It is simply the plain little practice of leaving your bedroom window a little open at the top while sleeping, both winter and summer. I do not come before you as a theorist or an inexperienced teacher, in thus calling loudly upon every family to this healthful practice. I am the father of ten children, and in pure health, and have—thank God—never lost one, although their natural constitutions were not robust. But in addition to the salutary effect of the practice in my own family, wherever I have advised others to try its effects, it has invariably been found to be both pleasant and beneficial.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

GEN. JOHN F. HARTRANFT,

OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,

GEN. JACOB M. CAMPBELL,

THE GLOBE FOR THE CAMPAIGN

We propose to send the Globe to campaign subscribers, to the 15th of November, at the following rates:

To single subscribers, 75cts. per copy.
To clubs of 5 and less than 10, 50cts. " "
To clubs of 10 and less than 20, 40cts. " "
To clubs of 20 and upwards, 35cts. " "

The above rates will not cover expenses, but we are willing to contribute something that every voter in the county may have an opportunity to read the political news during the campaign. Our friends we hope will make an effort to get up clubs. Subscriptions invariably in advance.

NO PAPER.—As all hands in the Globe fraternity, not excepting the "devil," desire a rest during the glorious week now coming in, we will publish no paper next week.

THE LAST NUMBER OF VOL. 23.—With this number Vol. 23 of the Globe is closed. The Globe has lived long enough now to relieve the public of any impression they may have formed that we were going down; and yet we believe there is not a paper in the State that has been threatened with death as often as the Globe. We have lived and still intend to live, as long as a grateful public can appreciate our efforts and extend to us their support. Now is a good time to subscribe for a new year. The terms are $2.00 a year in advance, and those who want to subscribe can send their address and cash through the post office, or drop in and see us at any time.

ARKANSAS REPRESENTED.—Arkansas is the first Southern State, which took part in the rebellion, that is now represented in Congress. On Tuesday last, Alexander McDonald and Benjamin J. Rice, were admitted as Senators from that State. All the other States will become represented, as soon as their Legislatures comply with the provisions of the Omnibus Reconstruction Bill, which recently passed both Houses.

☞The rebel records show that General Lee had 170,086 men on his rolls, when General Grant commenced the final campaign against him before Richmond. And then entrenched as he was behind a continuous line of fortifications, it is very easy for our readers to determine how difficult it was for Gen. Grant to drive him back and make him surrender. The skillfulness of Grant in conducting that campaign has been highly lauded heretofore, and no insinuations or falsehoods by Democratic journals in respect to it will have the effect of diminishing the credit accorded him, nor influence reasonable men to doubt that it was the policy of Grant in moving immediately on the enemy's works that wound up the rebellion so speedily.

☞Gen. Grant's brief administration while acting as Secretary of War, shows to the country an indication of his executive fitness. Hardly ninety days had elapsed until he had dismissed useless officers, stopped useless expensive contracts and other unnecessary expenditures to an amount equaling fifteen million dollars per year.

When he is placed in the office of Chief Executive, with the different departments of the government under his control, with all the machinery of the government under his direction, the saving of millions, while he was restricted to the war office, will be many times doubled. The large amount of money now uselessly wasted, will under the judicious management of Grant, be saved to the country.

Pierce and Fillmore are the only Ex-Presidents now living, and they are politically dead

Political Chip Basket.

Before our next number it may be known who is the Democratic candidate for President, among the many now applying for that empty honor.

Ex-Gov. Wm. Sprague has been re-elected U. S. Senator, by the Rhode Island Legislature, for six years, from the 4th of March, 1869.

Pendleton it is said, if his chances fail for nomination, will throw his influence in favor of Hancock. Alas, poor Chase.

An Irish Campaign Club, in favor of Grant and Colfax, with headquarters in New York, has been organized. They will do good work.

Nine-tenths of the newspapers in Germany, are said to be in favor of Grant, and so are all the liberal papers in France.

The policy of the Democrats to put Pendleton in nomination may be considered as exhibiting a warm friendship for the Republican party, as he is the easiest candidate to beat that they can select.

If General Grant, asks the Toledo Blade, reduced the expense of the Government $15,000,000 per annum, at the head of one Department of the Government, how much will be the reduction when he has a right to interfere in all the departments? Tax payers ask yourselves this question and respond at the ballot-box.

The Washington correspondent of the Worcester Spy says a general belief exists that at the present writing Senator Hendricks, of Indiana, stands the best chance for the Tammany Hall nomination. He also thinks that when the Democratic Convention meets, it will be found that Andrew Johnson will be a much more formidable candidate than is commonly supposed. The South will be a unit in his favor.

Senator Wallace, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, was present at the Democratic County Convention, in Allegheny, on Wednesday, and showed by figures that last fall, when Sharswood was elected, the Democrats polled ninety-four per cent. of their whole vote, while the Republicans cast less than seventy-five per cent. of theirs. The Democrats may be sure that Grant wins when they look at these figures.

The Cincinnati Commercial says that twenty-four members of the Democratic delegation of Ohio to the National Convention had a caucus at the Burnet House a few days ago. The special subject of the discussion by the Convention was the financial policy of the party. It turned out that only seven out of the twenty-four delegates were converts to the Pendleton Enquirer doctrine of paying the national debt in greenbacks. This is an ominous circumstance. If less than one-third of the Ohio delegation are greenbackers, how are the Pendletonians to overcome the Convention with their "great principle?" One delegate, and he of the highest repute of ability, came out squarely for the repudiation of the national debt; and declared in favor of fighting the battle of the Summer on that issue.

General Grant's Way of Expressing Great Truths.

[From The Springfield (Ill.) Journal]

General Grant, though not a politician, has a parenthetical way of stating great truths and sententious facts which is remarkable.

As early as the second year of the war, in a letter to Mr. Washburne, he writes: "I never was an abolitionist, not even what could be called anti-slavery—but I try to judge fairly and honestly, and it became patent to my mind early in the rebellion that the North and South could never live in peace with each other except as one nation, and that without slavery."

And again: "As anxious as I am to see peace established, I would not, therefor, be willing to see any settlement until this question is settled."

In his general order to his soldiers after the capture of General Lee, in referring to the enforcement of the emancipation proclamation, he calls "slavery the cause and pretext of the rebellion."

In his famous letter to the President, while acting Secretary of War ad interim, he says: "I stated that the law was binding upon me, constitutional or not, until set aside by the proper tribunal"—a doctrine that will do to stand by.

In his testimony before the impeachment committee, he says: "I have always been attentive to my own duties, and tried not to interfere with other people's." And again, "I never was in favor of a general amnesty until the time should come when it would be safe to give it."

In his correspondence with President Johnson in reference to the removal of General Sheridan from the district of Louisiana, he says: "This is a Republic where the will of the people is the law of the land. I beg that their voice may be heard."

In his speech to the committee appointed to inform him of his nomination, he said: "If chosen President, I shall have no policy of my own to enforce against the will of the people."

In his letter accepting the Republican nomination, he says: "Purely administrative officers should always be left to execute the will of the people. I have always respected that will and always shall."

These are only samples of General Grant's manner of expressing great truths, culled at random from our files but they are "apples of gold in pictures of silver," and show to the people the manner of man he is.

The Eligibility of Colored Men to Congress.

RICHMOND, June 25.

The following letter has been written by Senator Sumner to a citizen of Norfolk:

SENATE CHAMBER, June 22, 1868.

DEAR SIR:—I have your letter of the 18th, in reference to the eligibility of a colored man to Congress. I know of no ground on which he could be excluded from his seat if duly elected and I should welcome the election of a competent representative of the colored race to either House of Congress as the final triumph of the cause of equal rights. Till this step is taken our success is incomplete. Yours truly, (Signed) CHAS. SUMNER.

The Omnibus Reconstruction Bill and the President's Veto.

The President's message relating to the omnibus reconstruction bill says: "He does not deem it necessary to enter into a discussion of the results of this bill, as it contains the same principles which were involved in the Arkansas bill. His objections to that bill therefore apply to this with equal force." The message was very brief, and occupied about three minutes in reading.

The following is the "Omnibus Bill," so called, as passed by both Houses of Congress:

"An act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia and Florida to representation in Congress. Whereas the people of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida have in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled, An act for the more efficient government of the Rebel States,' passed March 2, 1867, and the acts supplemental thereto, framed constitutions of State government, which are Republican, and have adopted said constitutions by large majorities of the votes cast at the elections held for the ratification or repealing of the same.

Therefore be it enacted, that each of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as a State of the Union, when the Legislature of such State shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the XXXIXth Congress, and known as Article 14, upon the following fundamental conditions:

SECT. 1. That the Constitution of neither of said States shall ever be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote in said State who are entitled to vote by the Constitution thereof herein recognized, except as a punishment of such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State; provided, that any alterations of said Constitutions, prospective in its effect, may be made with regard to the time and place of residence of voters; and the State of Georgia shall only be entitled and admitted to representation on this further fundamental condition: That the first and third sub-divisions of section 17 of the fifth article of the Constitution of said State except the proviso to the first sub-division, shall be null and void, and that the General Assembly of said State, by solemn public act, shall declare the assent of the State to the foregoing fundamental condition.

SECT. 2. That if the day fixed for the first meeting of the Legislature of either of said States by the Constitution or ordinance thereof shall have passed, or so nearly arrived, before the passage of this act that there shall not be time for the Legislature to assemble at the period fixed, such Legislature shall convene at the end of twenty days from the time this act takes effect unless the Governor elect shall sooner convene the same.

SECT. 3. That the first section of this act shall take effect as to each State, except Georgia, when such State shall, by its Legislature, have duly ratified Article 14 of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress; and as to the State of Georgia, when it shall, in addition, give the assent of said State to the fundamental condition herein before imposed upon the same, and thereupon the officers of each State duly elected and qualified under the Constitution thereof shall be inaugurated without delay; but no person prohibited from holding office under the United States, or under any State, by section 3 of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as Article 14, shall be deemed eligible to any office in either of said States, unless relieved from disability as provided in said amendment; and it is hereby made the duty of the President, within ten days after receiving official information of the ratification of said amendment by the Legislature of either of said States, to issue a proclamation announcing the fact."

The following is the text of the bill for the admission of Arkansas; viz:

WHEREAS, The people of Arkansas, in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled "An act for the more efficient government of the Rebel States," passed March 1, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, have framed and adopted a Constitution of State government which is republican in form, and the Legislature of said State has duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the State of Arkansas, is entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental condition: That the Constitution of Arkansas shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens in the United States of the right to vote who are entitled to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State; Provided, That any alteration of said Constitution prospective in its effect may be made in regard to time and place of residence of voters.

The President's veto of the Omnibus Reconstruction bill occupied the attention of the House just twenty minutes, and of the Senate ten minutes. The bill went through the upper branch by thirty to eight, and the lower branch by one hundred and five to thirty. The Democrats express a good deal of disgust with Johnson, because he required them to again indorse his policy.

MASONIC.—The laying of the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple in Philadelphia on Wednesday last was a grand affair. There were over eight thousand Brothers in the line of procession. The banquet in the evening at the Academy of Music has been spoken of as probably never surpassed in the United States.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Political Situation.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Southern delegates to the Democratic National Convention are beginning to arrive in large numbers. Most of them desire to spend a few days here in conference with the leading Democratic politicians in Congress before going to New York, with a view to ascertaining the best course to be pursued. As a general thing, they are not committed for any candidates named in connection with the Presidency.

A majority of them are fully alive to the importance of securing at least a portion of the negro vote, and with a view to this they have a strong leaning towards Chase. They assert that he is the only man thus far named in whom the negroes have any confidence. The fact that Chase has long been known to them as an Abolitionist, and that he was among those who urged their emancipation, has great influence over their minds, and would go a great way towards controlling their votes.

The delegates say that the negroes are more easily led by men than by principle, and they point to Mississippi as evidence that they cannot be got to vote the Republican ticket solidly if the Democrats nominate a man in whom they have confidence. Beyond securing the negro, the Southern delegates have no preference for Chase over any other candidate.

None of them are for Hancock, and if a real old-fashioned Democrat is to be nominated, they prefer Pendleton, though they are convinced that with him for their candidate the Democracy would be badly beaten in the South, owing to the preponderance of the negro vote in a majority of States.

It is feared by the Northern Democrats that their Southern delegates will, like the delegates to the Chicago Convention, from the same section, be too ready to sell to whatever candidate has the most money. This idea however is indignantly repudiated by the delegates from the South, now here They say that the Republican delegates from the South were not genuine Southerners, but were "carpet-baggers," and this accounts for their purchasable character.

Counting the Electoral Vote.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Senate Judiciary Committee, at its meeting to day, discussed the Edmunds bill for the counting of the electoral vote after the next Presidential election. It provides that the States not represented in Congress shall not be allowed to send electors to the Electoral College, nor to take any part in the Presidential election. The chairman of the Committee was authorized to report favorably upon the bill as it stands.

The Tariff Bill.

The Ways and Means Committee considered the propriety of taking action on the tariff bill prepared by the sub committee. No conclusion was reached, and the subject was postponed until Monday. A majority of the members of the Committee are of the opinion that there is little prospect of anything being done with the Tariff at this session.

The Louisiana Delegation.

A delegation of Louisiana men were before the Reconstruction Committee to-day, asking that the recent election in the city of New Orleans be set aside, on the ground of the frauds practiced by the non-reconstructed, who carried the election. Their argument was heard, but no action was taken. The Committee are considering the bill relieving the political disabilities from a number of parties in the rebel States.

Stevens' Bill to Divide Texas.

There seems to be a majority of the Committee against Thad Stevens' bill to divide the State of Texas.

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Flash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the Staff of Life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yea, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; yea, asks for it. Let pill-makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted, if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT subdues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain, and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple: it is harmless; it has no stain; it gives no smart; it is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 622 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extended from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed over twenty physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which the doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city, any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.

May 12, 1868. PETER MINCK.

I am selling Wolcott's Pain Paint and Annihilator, and it certainly gives satisfaction to my customers.

D. F. COLES, Druggist, Rahway, N. J.

I am selling more of Wolcott's Pain Paint, than any other Patent Medicine. C. N. CRITTENTON, Wholesale Druggist, No. 7 6th Ave., New York.

I sell more of Wolcott's Pain Paint than all the other patent medicines combined and I keep a full supply of all that have any demand.

Bold Robberies.

Some scamp entered the German Reformed Sunday school-room one night last week and stole about a dollar out of the contribution box. That thief's chances for heaven are very slim.

On Saturday night a party were discovered by W. H. Woods, Esq., on his premises, but they made their escape before detection. It is supposed they were on a hen raid. The one who lost his hat in jumping over the fence can get it by calling on Mr. W.

On Saturday night last, some individuals, who were provided with forceps which turned the key in the door, entered the office of Dr. R. Wiestling, in this place, and creeping stealthily into the side room where he was sleeping, took his clothing, together with his pocket book, containing about twenty dollars. The first intimation he had of being robbed was on arising the next morning, and seeing his office door open, and his clothes scattered along the street.

Not satisfied with this haul the thieves went down street and entered the residence of Mr. J. Simpson Africa in the same manner, going into his office first, and then boldly entering his bed-room, and stealing his pants, also. They found about twenty dollars in his pocket book, and the next morning Mr. A. was left minus purse and pants.

The party then went down street further, no doubt trying the doors along the way, and effected an entrance in the residence of Theo. Cremer, Esq., but one of the children being sick and seeing a light in the bed room, the thieves departed with no game.

Mr. Thos Fisher who resides opposite the Court House, found the marks of the forceps upon his front door key, but as the key was secured by a wire, they tried in vain to get in.

A Sad Accident.

Mr. Robert B. Johnson of Hollidaysburg, died at Baltimore on the 21st, from injuries received in the Calvert street station, depot of the North Central Railway, on the Saturday evening previous.

The Hollidaysburg Register in recording the death of Robert B. Johnston says:—"He was a son of Thomas Johnston, Esq., at one time Sheriff of Huntingdon county. He was born at Bell's Forge, Antis township, on the 1st day of September, 1821, and consequently at the time of his death was in the forty-seventh year of his age.—He came to this town a poor boy, in 1839, and from that time up until 1847 was as a clerk in Lloyd & Graff's warehouse. At the last named date, he entered the Banking House of Mr. James M. Bell, at first as teller and bookkeeper, but in a few years became a partner of the banking firm at that time established, and so long known as "Bell, Johnston, Jack & Co." On the organization of "The First National Bank of Hollidaysburg," Mr. Johnston was elected Cashier, which position he held at the time of his death. He was married June 22d, 1849, and leaves his wife, who has been an invalid for some years and one son, aged about fourteen years, living. As to the man! he was a noble man—honest, honorable, generous, genial, loved by all. We do not believe that there was a man in the county, of whom so many said, "he is my friend!" and when they said this, they felt it and know it to be true."

Fourth of July Celebration.

At public meetings held in the Court House on 25th and 26th inst., it was decided to celebrated the coming Fourth of July at Cottage Grove. The following persons were selected as officers, committees, &c., for the occasion:

President.—J. Sewell Stewart, Esq.
Vice Presidents.—R. M. Speer, Esq., Dr. R. A. Miller, M. B. Massey, Esq., P. M. Lytle, Esq., J. M. Bailey, Esq, Thomas Burchinell.
Prayer.—Rev. J. C. Clarke.
Reading of Declaration of Independence.—Milton S. Lytle, Esq.
Oration.—Hon. John Scott.
Chief Marshal.—Dr. R. R. Weistling.
Assistant Marshals.—Wm. P. Rudolph, C. C. North, T. W. Myton, W. F. Cunningham.
Committee of Arrangements.—Wm. A. Burchinell, Wm. Bathurst, Alex. Donny, George Cremer, L. B. Kline, Geo. Baker, O. E. McNeil, H. W. Miller, J. R. Simpson, W. H. DeArmitt, E. S. McMurtrie, M. M. Logan, K. M. King, Dr. D. P. Miller, W. K. Crites, H. C. Weaver, J. H. Boring, Lee F. Wilson, J. O. Murray, David Blair.

National Hall.

This Hall, situated at the head of Franklin street, in this borough, is nearly completed. The room is large, and provided with a gallery, and is capable of seating comfortably about four hundred persons. A first-class stage, with modern improvements, has been fitted up, and is graced with a full length curtain, which is made to ascend by means of pulleys. The hall is well ventilated, and very attractive throughout. The gentlemanly proprietors Messrs. Moritz Richter & Sons deserve credit for supplying the want long felt in our town of a good hall, and now that they have gone to some expense in making the room elegant as well as convenient we hope they will have no cause to regret a lack of patronage. The Hall will be opened on Saturday next, the Fourth of July.

Died of Hydrophobia.

We learn that a young man named Martin Fuhrman, who resided at Mt. Union, this county, suddenly took sick one day last week, and before evening the disease evinced all the symptoms of hydrophobia. He had been bitten by a dog about three years ago, but no results ensuing it was thought the poison was out of his system, until last week, when it is thought he brought on the disease by going in the water with his clothes on, and afterwards wearing them till evening. He died in convulsions incident to hydrophobia, and it took several men to hold him.

If we have a public dinner on the Fourth, it is to be hoped that the Com. of Arrangements will see that the provisions are distributed to the filling of the stomachs of all and not to the filling of the baskets of a few. Some persons are more greedy than hungry on such occasions.

Mr. Daniel McKinney, of Tyrone Forges, died suddenly on the 21st inst. His death was caused by a rush of blood to the brain. When called to breakfast by a brother he answered, but not coming as soon as they supposed he should come, some of the family repaired to his room, and found him dead.—How uncertain is life.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Mountain Seminary Commencement.

The use of the word commencement as a name for the closing exercises in an educational institution sounds decidedly awkward and anomalous. Worcester defines it to mean in this connection, "the time when students in a university or college receive their degrees." Well, that will do, but it is rather far-fetched. Of course it is in accordance with the established practice of the best speakers and writers and we must submit.

It was our privilege to be present at the commencement at the close of the session of this institution on Tuesday and Wednesday the 23d and 24th inst. The programme for the first day consisted of Recitations, Phisiology, Moral Science, Latin, and the several branches of Mathematics, in all of which the young ladies gave evidence of thorough culture. The second day was devoted to Botany, Butler's Analogy, English literature, vocal and instrumental music, reading of essays, and conferring diplomas upon the graduates.

The graduates were Miss Libbie Barnhart of Huntingdon, Miss Mary E. Candor of Lewistown, and Miss Bettie Black of Pittsburgh. Miss Candor read an essay on "Gems from Whittier;" Miss Barnhart on "Individualism;" and Miss Black on "Nature." The essays were creditable productions, replete with good thoughts well expressed, and were read with perfect composure and grace, although a little more elevation of the voice would have produced a better modulation of the tone. The same defect of elocution was painfully exhibited by some of the students in quotations from Milton, Tennyson, and other English authors. In Botany the young ladies were perfectly at home, analyzing almost every species of the vegetable kingdom indigenous to this climate, showing their properties, habits and distinctive characteristics with perfect ease, thus making it a pleasant and profitable exercise for pupils and patrons who were present. This locality affords most excellent facilities for the promotion of this study—the surrounding hills, precipitous rocks, shady dells, native forests, and mountain streams, produce every variety of wild flower and vegetable of this climate.

Prof. Grier has collected a cabinet of rare and beautiful specimens of minerals, shells, corals and preserved insects from almost every part of the world, to which is added a collection of idols and other Chinese curiosities, presented to the institution by Dr. Happer, missionary to China. This cabinet, of itself, affords a prolific source of thought to the student of natural history.

One of the interesting features of this intellectual entertainment was the display of wax fruit and flowers—the work of the students in that department during last session. Almost every variety of native and tropical fruit and flowers were represented and with a faithfulness to nature which created a strong desire to "pluck and eat."

The location of this institution is calculated to bring out the better traits of human character, and Prof. Grier does not fail to embrace the advantage thus afforded him in shaping the morals of the institution. Pure water, mountain breezes, and a temperate people make it one of the most healthful locations in the State.

The grounds in connection with this institution consist of about fifty acres which is planted in fruit and ornamental trees, shrubs and vegetables, in endless variety. The ornamental grounds are being beautified every season. A spacious hot-house has been erected for floral and vegetable purposes. The grounds are under the charge of Mr. Mat. Grier, who is perfectly master of the situation. More anon.

OBSERVER, JR.

The Fourth in this Borough.

The preparations that are being made for the celebration of the glorious Fourth in yo ancient borough, would lead us to infer that there will be no lack of enthusiasm on that day. Meetings were held last week to make arrangements for holding a general picnic, which promises to be just as grand an affair as it looks. Of course it is expected, and reasonably, too, that our citizens will contribute liberally as well as give encouragement to this project. We understand that there is to be a public dinner given in the day-time, and if the money can be raised there will be a grand display of fireworks in the evening. Let us have both if possible, and throwing aside political animosities, make it an old-time Fourth.

Foster's Oriental Bitters.

This Bitters is becoming more and more popular every day, as those who try it testify to its efficacy in curing the diseases for which it is recommended, such as Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Cholera Morbus, Diseases of the Kidneys, etc. Weak and nervous ones take it, and find it peculiarly strengthening. The Bitters is prepared by Buchanan & Smith, Huntingdon, Pa., and for sale by Druggists. Orders solicited. *

A dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial from McVeytown, Mifflin county, says: The crops in this section have a good appearance, excepting the wheat, which is affected considerably by the weevil. Many persons apply this term indiscriminately to the moth, fly and beetle. What we mean by the weevil here, is a diurnal, slow, timid and defenseless little worm or moth with hard heads and small jaws; and work their way into the head of the wheat stalk and destroy the grain.

The following are the persons selected to represent this county at the Democratic Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention in New York on the 4th prox.: Maj. R. B. Petriken, 5th P. V.; Dr. D. P. Miller; Lt. John H. Westbrook, 49th P. V.; Sergt. A. C. Greenland, 49th P. V.; Sergt. D. Thompson, 1st Pa. Heavy Art.

—Baldness, Grayness, and the other imperfections of the Hair will be regarded as inexcusable after a trial of Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle) Every Druggist sells it. Price one Dollar. 1m.

Seven dogs were poisoned in Lewistown the other day. The Democrat is afraid it was the work of the P. L. L. From what we have learned about this organization they wouldn't take the time to "kuklux" the dogs. We take it for granted theirs is a better mission.

"How blest are they whose transient years,
Pass like an evening meteor's flight;
Not dark with guilt nor dim with tears;
Whose course is short, unclouded, bright.
O, stay thy tears, the blest above
Have hailed a spirit's heavenly birth
And sung a song of joy and love;
Then why should anguish reign on earth?"

THE BREVITY OF LIFE.

"'Tis not for man to trifle, life is brief,
Our age is but the falling of a leaf.
We have no time to sport away the hours,
All must be earnest in a world like ours.
Not many lives, but one have we,
How sacred should that one be."

And still how many fritter away their lives unable to fill any useful purpose, because some lingering disease unfits them for it, and they neglect or refuse to use the remedies within their reach God in his wonderful arrangement of nature has provided an antidote for all the ills that human flesh is heir to, and by the aid of science, the medicinal virtues of certain herbs, roots and barks have been combined, and the result is now known all over the civilized world as Mishler's Herb Bitters. It thoroughly purifies the blood, invigorates the nervous fibres, elevates the standard of all the vital forces, and sustains a most healthful tone of the entire human organization. Various Rural Items.

Too many barns are deficient in windows.

MONEY invested in needed tools pays a high per cent.

THE more comfortable you keep your animals the more they will thrive.

A FEW roots daily, to all stock, are as welcome as apples to boys and girls.

A GOOD cow is a valuable machine; the more food she properly digests the greater the profit.

THE spring of 1812 was so backward that the apple trees did not blossom until the 6th of June.

ITCH IN SWINE.—Rub the animal with equal parts of lard and brimstone, and put them in a clean pen.

THE Valley Virginian says it has been hot, but the mountains are cool and the crops flourishing.

THE Early Rose potato was raised by Alfred Breese, of Vermont, in 1861, from a seed of the Garnet Chili.

SCOURS IN SHEEP.—A pint of new milk thickened with flour. To be given twice a day till the discharge is stopped.

GRAPES grow only on one year old wood. As to pruning, do the best you can for there are as many ways as there are to get religion.

EVERY day look heavenward to see if there are caterpilars' nests in the trees. Apply soft soap to the trunks, never to your neighbor.

SCOURS IN HORSES.—Put one pint of good gin, and one ounce of indigo into a bottle, and shake them together and administer in one dose.

A MAN in Farmington, Mo., has a small native cow, seven years old, which, during six months last year, averaged 11½ pounds of butter per week.

IT seems strange that housekeepers don't buy pails and tubs with brass hoops and trimmings. They cost a little more at first, but last wonderfully.

RINGBONE.—Mix equal parts of turpentine and lamp oil, and apply to the part affected night and morning, rubbing it well in the hair around the hoof.

THE Rural World recommends giving stock, especially those confined to stables, a sod of earth a foot square once a week, or what they will eat up clean.

BONES are worth twice as much as ashes for manure, if dissolved, and the ashes will reduce them. Mix both in a barrel, half and half, and moisten with soap-suds.

A GERMAN author says the useful plants number about 12,000. Of these there are 1,450 varieties of edible fruits berries, and seeds. The cereals number 108, and vegetables 406.

A NEW variety of corn, the result of selecting seed and of high culture, has originated in Minnesota. The yield last year was as high as one hundred and thirty-seven bushels to the acre.

FLAX seed occasionally given to horses or cattle will make them shed their old hair, and whether young or old, soon get sleek and fat. It is the only thing which will fatten some old horses.

COSTIVENESS IN SHEEP.—Two tablespoonfuls of castor oil every twelve hours. Or give one ounce epsom salts. This may be assisted by an injection of warm water, weak suds and molasses.

DIARRHEA IN CATTLE.—Take half a pint of bran, pour boiling water on it, and cover with a thick cloth until nearly cool; strain and give the tea to the afflicted animal. Two or three doses are sure to cure.

THE grass crop of Pennsylvania, it is expected, will be the heaviest out for ten years. The wet weather of last fall, the snows during the winter and the continued rains of April, all combined to raise a heavy growth.

WOUNDS IN SHEEP.—Take the leaves of the elder tree and make a strong decoction, and wash the parts affected two or three times a day, and you will not be troubled with flies or worms.—It also removes fever from the wound, and is healing.

ALL of our Minnesota exchanges speak enthusiastically of the condition of the growing crops. The season is the most favorable for many years. It is estimated that from forty to sixty per cent. will be added to the cultivated lands this year.

A YOUNG lady farmer in the fruit region of Southern Illinois got 20 per cent. more for her strawberries than others because she gave better measure and had nicer fruit. If the ladies will go on in this way, the question will be whether men ought to vote.

THE Cumberland (Md.,) Union says: "We are informed that the crops generally look remarkably well in many portions of this county. The fruit also promises an abundant yield, perhaps with the exception of the peach crop, which it is supposed have been seriously injured by the late frosts."

THE Council Bluff (Iowa) Democrat says:—"We learn that the crops in this county in some localities are pretty badly damaged by the grasshoppers. They have commenced on the corn crop, and are going for it heavy. A farmer told us yesterday that he had been trying carbolate of lime, but the grasshoppers rather liked it."

The new species of the potato bug, known as the "ten-line spearman," which created such havoc in Eastern Illinois last year, is making its appearance in very large numbers in some sections of Western Indiana. About Laporte some farmers are ploughing under their vines, having failed to discover any remedy for the evil. In other parts, slacked lime sprinkled over the vines has been found to act successfully.

☞It is very singular how the fact of a man's death often seems to give people a true idea of his character, whether for good or for evil, than they have ever possessed while he was living and acting among them. Death is so genuine a fact that it excludes falsehoods, or betrays its emptiness; it is a touchstone that proves the gold and dishonors the baser metal. Could the departed, whoever he may be, return in a week after his decease, he would almost invariably find himself at a higher or lower point than he had formerly occupied on the scale of public appreciation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebel acts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fathers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any House in town. Store on Southeast corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa.

AN ARTICLE OF REAL MERIT!

FOSTER'S

ORIENTAL BITTERS,

A Remedy that has been tried and stood the test, not only in an occasional case, but in every community where used it has been pronounced the safest and most reliable remedy known for

DYSPEPSIA,
LOSS OF APPETITE,
WEAKNESS,
GENERAL DEBILITY,
PAIN OR CRAMP IN THE STOMACH OR BOWELS,
CHOLERA MORBUS,
HEADACHE,
NEURALGIA,
INTERMITTENT, OR CHILLS AND FEVER,
LIVER TONIC,
AND FOR ALL FEMALE DISEASES.

As an agreeable and safe remedy and an Invigorating Beverage it has no equal.

This valuable Bitters is composed of the essential properties of roots—the medicinal qualities of which have been carefully extracted. It is agreeable to the taste and does not leave that unpleasant taste in the mouth for hours after, that most medicines do.

As a Blood Purifier and Liver Tonic it has no equal.—It contains no calomel or other injurious drug, but is purely vegetable.

For Dyspepsia it cannot be excelled. It contains nothing injurious to the stomach, is mild and prompt in its action and effects a permanent cure by removing the cause of the complaint.

For Intermittent Fever or Chills and Fever this Bitters is a specific far better and surer than quinine.

No family should be without it as the cost is trifling compared with the suffering that may be avoided by having it at hand in case of sudden attack.

Weakly Persons use the Oriental Bitters.

Invalids use the Oriental Bitters.

Dyspeptics use the Oriental Bitters.

Females use the Oriental Bitters.

DR. W. H. WITMOR

Has been in successful practice for a number of years, with the experience of the different Hospitals in Europe and America. Army and Hospital Surgeon during the late American War, continues to attend to all professional cases at his office,

No. 928 Filbert Street, Philadelphia.

No Patent Medicines are used or recommended: the remedies administered are those which will not break down the constitution, but renovate the system from all injuries it has sustained from mineral medicines, and leave the system in a healthy and perfectly cured condition.

DYSPEPSIA,

that distressing disease and fell destroyer of health and happiness, undermining the constitution and yearly carrying thousands to untimely graves, can most emphatically be cured.

MELANCHOLY ABERRATION, that state of alienation and weakness of the mind which renders persons incapable of enjoying the pleasures or performing the duties of life.

RHEUMATISM,

in any form or condition, chronic or acute, warranted curable.

EPILEPSY,

or falling sickness, all chronic or stubborn cases of radically removed; Salt Rheum and every description of ulcerations; Piles and Scrofulous Diseases which have baffled all previous medical skill, can be cured by my treatment; and I do say all diseases [yes Consumption] can be cured by wearing my Medicated Jacket, which is a protection to the lungs against all changes of weather in all climates. Having investigated for years the cause and character of intermittents [fever and ague] in all parts of the United States, will cure permanently all chronic or acute cases of ague and nervous diseases in a few days.

FEMALE DISEASES

Cancer Cured without the use of Knife, or Drawing Blood.

Tape Worm, that dread to the human family for years, can be removed with two or three doses of my newly discovered remedy, warranted in all cases. Consultation in the English and German languages. Will make visits any distance desired. May be addressed by letter [confidentially] and medicine sent with proper directions to any part of the country.

SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE!

Excellent for Females and Weakly Persons.

Used by hundreds of Congregations for Church or Communion purposes.

VINEYARDS—Los Angelos, California, and Passaic, New Jersey.

SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE, Four Years Old. This justly celebrated native Wine is made from the juice of the Oporto Grape raised in this country. Its invaluable Tonic and Strengthening Properties are unsurpassed by any other native wine. Being the pure juice of the grape produced under Mr. Speer's own personal supervision, its purity and genuineness are guaranteed. The youngest child may partake of its generous qualities, and the weakest invalid may use it to advantage. It is particularly beneficial to the aged and debilitated, and suited to the various ailments that afflict the weaker sex. It is in every respect A WINE TO BE RELIED ON.

Invalids use Speer's Port Grape Wine; Females Use Speer's Port Grape Wine; Weakly Persons Find a Benefit by its Use; Speer's Wines in Hospitals are preferred to other Wines.

SOLDIERS' HEIRS, ATTENTION!

The act of Congress approved March 2, 1867; gives to Heirs of Soldiers who died prisoners of war, for the time the soldier was so held a prisoner, at the rate of twenty-five cents per day, to be paid in the following order: 1st. To the widow, if unmarried; 2d. To the children; 3d. To the parents, to both jointly if they are living, if either is dead, to the survivor; 4th. To the brothers and sisters.

COMMUTATION FOR RATIONS,

The act of February 28, 1867, provides for the refunding of the $300 Commutation Money, where the same person was again drafted, and was required to enter the service or furnish a substitute.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.

The act of March 2, 1867, also makes provisions for the payment of the

$100 ADDITIONAL BOUNTY

to such soldiers as have accidentally lost their discharges

All persons having any claims under any of the above mentioned Acts, or any other kind of claim against the United States or State Governments, can have them promptly collected, by addressing the undersigned. Information and advice cheerfully given to soldiers or their friends, free of charge.
